

Upper River Forum: Creating Our Great River City Legacy

Thursday, July 26, 2011

5:00 – 7:00 p.m.

Minneapolis Park and Recreation Board Headquarters
2117 West River Road, Minneapolis 55411

“Key Lessons from Waterfront Cities” and “Your turn: Redevelopment Choices”

Featuring: Peter Hendee Brown

Author of “America’s Waterfront Revival;” Architect, Planner and Development Consultant.

Followed by a Community Discussion of Key Redevelopment Issues.

Peter Hendee Brown will share key lessons learned from other waterfront cities, including critical tools for implementation and realistic timeframes for measuring success. Participants will have the opportunity to discuss key riverfront development questions.

Refreshments will be served.

This series of Upper River Forums is hosted by the Minneapolis Riverfront Partnership and the Above the Falls Citizen Advisory Committee to highlight the place-changing opportunities ahead in 2011 for the Minneapolis riverfront.
